

Nadim AKHTAR

Head of Construction Department.
Agha Khan University Hospital, Karachi.

ACADEMIC QUALIFICATION

M.S. in Construction Management, NED University, Karachi.
B.E. in Civil Engineering, NED University, Karachi.

BACKGROUND SUMMARY

Twenty-nine (29) years of Management and Supervision experience for prestigious building and industrial projects.

Team player, organized and having good communication skills. Capable of managing scope, time, quality and cost of projects.

Spent about 20 years working in Saudi Arabia for International Client, Contractor as well as Consultants.

Presently working as the Head of Construction Department in Agha Khan University Hospital dealing with all the renovations and modifications in the existing hospital and university. Also managing the construction of new phlebotomy centers across Pakistan.

Well versed in Contracts based on FIDIC Conditions of Contract and PEC, PPRA Rules, procurement, managing contractors, planning and scheduling, quality control of projects.

As an Independent Consultant worked for several organizations including renowned international organizations like Saudi Binladen Group and Veolia Water, France for their claims and contract management.

Recently appointed as an UMPIRE ARBITRATOR for a dispute of 378,000,000/- between Pakistan Civil Aviation Authority and the Contractor.